BRYANT REVIEW

ALUMNI UPDATE

Robert W. Setterlund '65 and Barbara E. Preissel '65 reminisce.

ALUMNI COAST TO COAST

"Networking, getting reacquainted with fellow alumni, and promoting the College," says Bryant Trustee Joe Duffy '69, "especially promoting Bryant, that's why we're forming an Alumni Chapter in California." We've also formed alumni chapters in the Southern United States; Sarasota and Boca Raton, FL; Greater New York; Worcester and Boston, MA; Hartford and Fairfield County, CT; and Rhode Island.

As with most chapter events, the California event attracted a wide range of alumni. Remarks Chairman of the Bryant College Board of Trustees Greg Parkos '50, "We had a great turnout with alumni from the 1950s to the 1990s and the enthusiasm generated was really outstanding."

Volunteer Event Coordinator Barbara Preissel '65 has an idea about why the enthusiasm was so high. "The setting was a dream. The Long Beach Museum of Art provided an elegant backdrop for the wonderful, supportive people in attendance. And thanks to the graciousness of alumni like Ralph Manuel '60, who so generously donated the furnishings for the event, we hope to sustain a successful and meaningful alumni chapter."

The California Alumni Chapter Steering Committee (pictured below) has plans to host two receptions this fall for California area students who are interested in attending Bryant. These volunteers, from left to right, are: Joseph T. Duffy, '69, Robert M. Landry '55, Brian J. Terkelsen '86, Barbara Preissel '65, Alan F. Chep '76, Ralph C. Manuel '60, Michael L. BEST members are preparing to call prospective students again this fall. Armed with their BEST Handbook and lots of enthusiasm, these alumni volunteers will be talking with high school students who have expressed an interest in attending Bryant College. The volunteers' role is to provide information, answer questions, and nurture interest. This effort helps turn inquiries into applicants and, ultimately, into enrolled students.

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

"Because I was an Orientation Leader and I also worked in the Admission Office as a tour guide, I've always enjoyed student recruitment. Meeting the students and their families at College Nights has proven to be a lot of fun and gives me great personal satisfaction."

Cindy Prachar '91

"Hosting receptions for accepted applicants two years in a row has been a nice chance to show off something that I'm proud of - my Bryant education. Working as a BEST volunteer gives me an opportunity to further emphasize the value of a Bryant degree."

HOW'S THE JOB MARKET FOR BRYANT SENIORS?

In spite of the recession, which has created the worst job market in several decades, Bryant seniors did remarkably well in securing excellent positions in their chosen professions.

Students happily accepted positions ranging from Fortune 500 companies such as Aetna, Digital, and the Travelers; New York financial firms such as JP Morgan and Bankers Trust; government agencies like the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; retailers such as TJ Maxx and Abraham Strauss; as well as small businesses specializing in the areas of consulting and public relations. One of our seniors has accepted a position with the US Olympics and still another young entrepreneur will be starting his own nanny business. The Peace Corps and non-profit organizations have also been of interest this year.

This success is due to a variety of factors including the excellent education that our students receive and the terrific reputation that Bryant College has earned.

The comprehensive on-campus recruiting program that our Career Services Office provides is President: Dave Suaviso '96, a management major from Commack, NY;

Vice President: Kim Mascaro '94, a marketing major from West Simsbury, CT;

Secretary: Jackie Shaldjian '96, a management major from Stamford, CT;

Treasurer: Annie Vaillancourt '94, an accounting major from Bristol, CT.

STUDENT AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

David M. Goodman '89, of Mt. Vernon, NY, the director of junior programs for the Eastern Tennis Association based in Harrison, NY.

BRYANT STUDENTS NETWORK IN OHIO

Carolyn Crouch '94, Dave Suaviso '96, and Annie Vaillancourt '94 represented Bryant College at the National Student Alumni Association/Student Foundation Network Conference in August at Ohio State University in Columbus. Their two-fold goal was to introduce the Bryant SAA as well as to learn how other SAAs operate. Our Student Alumni Association's primary purpose is to involve students before, during, and after their days as a student at the College by contacting prospective students and current alumni; encouraging student involvement with a variety of campus services; and upon graduation, maintaining their involvement as alumni.

If you knew the late another primary factor. This program requires Career Services personnel traveling to various cities and "selling" Bryant students to potential employers. This is easy for career counselor Judy (Almeida) Clare '66, since she is an alumna and feels very strongly about the capabilities of our students. "After all," says Judy, "they are confident in their abilities, are ambitious, possess good communication skills, have strong work ethics, are well rounded, and usually are willing to relocate."

We're happy to report that Bryant College seniors from the Class of 1993 are defying the odds and doing well! As an alum, you should be pleased and proud that your Bryant College degree is still going strong -- even in today's job market.

CAREER SERVICES OFFICE RECEIVES AWARD

The Bryant College Career Services Office recently received the Alva Cooper Award for Excellence and Innovativeness in Program Planning for Students. The national award, sponsored by the New York Placement Council, was conferred on Bryant for a series of programs offered to seniors called From College to Corporate - Making the Transition.
